Mr Stan Kesselman

Dear Stan:

Thanks for letter of January 31 and check for $249. I ought to take you up on the G-VG golf balls for I'm leaving for Florida Monday for a few weeks. I got a new set of woods for Christmas and if they don't work any better than the old ones, I might take a dive into Biscayne Bay!

Enclosed are the following:

Lot #12	1869	dollar, VF, solder spot	$ 51.
	105	1863 three dollars, VF	156.
	107	1866 " " F	121.

Dear Mr. Kesselman, March 20, 1967

I note your ad in "Scrapbook" and your offer to buy rare gold. I have one piece (not particularly rare). I have a 1857-C $1 in nice F-VF condition that I would take $90 for or (2) AV common $20 golds in exchange even. If you are interested in giving $90 or trading (2) common $20's then either send (2) coins or check for $90 and I will return coin to you - satisfaction a must! Hope to hear from you!

Sincerely,

Jim Sparks

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

I received your letter of March 24th this morning and have checked over your prices very carefully and can see that this last shipment did not measure up to the first lot as to the grade on many of the coins. Most of the coins are quite scarce which makes your prices just about right as a whole so I will sell all 24 which comes to $1219.00 and you would be doing me a nice favor if you also buy the two others which are not so hot as to condition at your price which you can just add on to the check. You stated in your letter that you would price that 1850-D. - $5.00 and the 1871 - $1.00 - Gold Coin which are both quite scarce. I trust you completely so I think the easiest way for both of us is to just pay the price you can come out at in a nice profit and I know that I will be satisfied no matter what the price is. This way we can close up the deal I believe the easiest way.

I am sorry that I forgot to state how many coins I was sending in the shipment but I will try and remember in the future. I sure like the way you price the coins because it makes it much easier for me to see at a glance how much I will get.

I like your way of doing business and wish you the best of luck in all your dealings as well as your personal life. I haven't looked over my larger coins for quite some time but will check over them to see what I might have to please you. I have quite a few Foreign Gold also but I see that you deal exclusively in U. S. by your ads.

Please send the check for all 26-coins which will be the $1219.00 plus the price you wish to pay for those two which you didn't price in your letter. You are the judge and I know that I will be ~~at~~ satisfied. I like to finish the deal in one stroke instead of two as long as there was only two coins from finishing the deal.

Best wishes,

Dear Stan :

Received to-day the auction catalogue from Stack's and had checked it for the different Double Eagles, although there is not much of importance as far as the Double Eagles are concerned.

The only interesting Double Eagle is the 1879-0. Double Eagle, which is described by Mr. Stack as a ABOUT UNC specimen. If you will get to see it at Stack's, you will be able to tell whether it is much more superior specimen for condition if compared alongside with the one that you had almost tried to sell me, but had to return it back to the owner and whom you as yet did not identify to me.

So, if the 1879-0. Double Eagle that will be sold by Stack's from the Copeland collection be a truly outstanding specimen then I suppose that you will be buying it. I hope that it really is a much ~~chopier~~ piece than the one you almost had sold me.

I would like to have that 1855-0. Double Eagle, but it is described to be in only VERY FINE condition, but your actually seeing it and examining it will prove to you as to whether it is a gold piece worthwhile to acquire from this sale.

In regards to the 1860-0. and 1861-0. they too are only VERY FINE specimens, so my specimens are far more superior.

Will leave it up to you and for you alone to judge in particular the 1879-0. Double Eagle.

Yours very truly,

Dear Stan:

Let me apologize for the delay in getting a reply to your last two letters, I have been quite busy in opening another Antique Shop which I am having my son manage for me. This has been a real chore and things are just now getting back to normal, so to speak.

Stan as for the Gold pieces I am afraid I will have to hold off for awhile as I am in the process of trying to buy an estate of Coins, which, if I am successful will run into quite a little lump. Incidentally I just acquired a 1839-C $5 Gold piece VF/XF ( few hair line scratches on rev. which could easily be removed by someone who knows how) I could let you have for $185.00. This would be the absolute low on this item if you would be interested. Also just bought today a 1845-D $5 Gold Vgd. plus lowest price $50.00.

As for the 1882 BU 50¢ I could go $90.00 if strictly choice. As you mention they may be rarer than Proof but I would personally prefer the Proof.

Stan, that's about it for now, I will certainly try to get my correspondence caught up and try in the future to answer your mail in a quicker fashion.

Hope business is well with you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Stan :

Received your kind letter with your offerings of the two (2) rare Double Eagles.

If your 1859-O. Double Eagle is a truly nice perfect specimen, free from any nicks or cuts and does not show signs of wear and the word LIBERTY on the coronet is sharp as well as the date and the mintmark, I would let you have in exchange for it the following gold coins, which I had almost sold them, but I had figured that one of these days I would hear from you.

These are the gold pieces I will trade you in exchange for your ~~BARBERSLY~~ FINE 1859-O. Double Eagle.

1890 and 1892 Quarter Eagles and the 1891-CC Double Eagle.

The Quarter Eagles are BU and the Double Eagle is EF

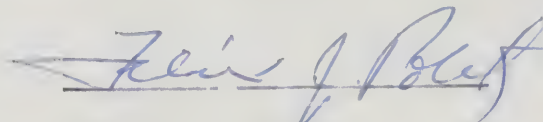

If these are agreeable on the trade, it would be nice of you to let me see your 1859-O. Double Eagle.

I only hope that your EF 1859-O. Double Eagle is a truly beautiful specimen as is my 1861-O. Double Eagle in EF condition that I received from you on a trading basis last year.

Will ship my above gold coins as soon as I receive your 1859-O. Double Eagle and same will be O.K. with me.

Will you be able to get me now the 1855-O. Double Eagle ?

Yours very truly,

Felix J. Polek

P. S. Had very little time these past four weeks for any correspondences for I have been moving to a new living quarters and what a job it is.

Dear Stan:

Here is a complete list of gold (at last).
Let me know what you can use. Most of them are priced at what I paid for them and a few are actually less than that.

Sincerely,

Bob Yates

Dear Stan;

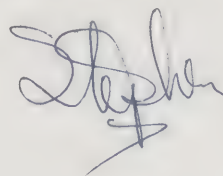

Thank you for sending the two "C" Double Eagles—I sent them on approval to my customers, and will let you know if I did any good as soon as I hear from them, which should be in another day or so.

On the 1920-S Eagle, it is an Unc. coin, but has one small rim bump on it. I must get $2950 out of it, and can let your customer see it on approval if you so wish. It is almost exactly the same quality as the one Hollinbeck-Kagins have at $3500.

I will have to get down to the bank to get you a list of the gold that I now have, but to give you some idea, I have the following quarter eagles: 1859-O; 1885; 1892; 1847-C; 1873; 1860-S; and several others. I don't have much in  $\frac{1}{2}$  eagles except: 1857-C and 1911-O. In eagles, I believe that I mentioned that I have the 1920-S and 1930-S plus a few other not so scarce ones. In double Eagles, I have the following: 1857-S; 1860-O; 1861; 1865-S; 1907-O; 1909-S; 1921; 1924-O; and I am in the process of having a 1927-O authenticated.

Can you give me some idea what particular dates you are in need of at this time?

Best Regards,

Dear Stan;

I received your letter of 12-4-67, and am sorry that you got mad over the 1860-O Double Eagle, as the coin was sent to Les Merkin way before you asked for me to send it to you. I thought that I would either have the coin or my money before now. I think that I mentioned to you that I asked him $2000 for the coin, and he is to let me know for certain what he can get me out of the coin. Do you know Lester? If you know him personally, you might call him up and tell him that if he can't sell the coin, that he is to turn it over to you. You can let me know what you decide to do on the coin.

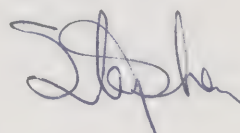

When I stopped by the P.O. on my way home, there was a notice for your package, so I will get it first thing in the morning.

I am going on a two week vacation starting Dec. 16, so I will get you paid, or the coin back before then.

I am waiting to hear from a customer on quite a few of the items, he needs them, so I am trying to sell some to his son for a Christmas present for him.

I am still sorry on the list, but with taking 15 Graduate hours at the college, in addition to teaching two other courses, I am at a loss for time to get to the bank.

Very Truly,

Dear Stan,

Thank you for your list of rare gold,
and yes there are some dates that interest me.

These are as follows: 1867-S Eagle
1879-CC " "
1871-P " "
1875-P 2½ Gold. F-VF

The following coins I would trade but I am not eager to get rid of them as they are sleepers and have great potential, <sup>just</sup> as your coins

do. They are as follows 1885-S Dime VF-EF
Not a "S" (rev pitted) lowest
BAD "S" mint Dime

Original 1836 ½ Cent Rarity 7 (12 Known) check catalogues of 50 yrs ago to see how rare.
Toned and slightly rubbed for Hagin Sale
Sept 30, 1967 Cost $430.00 and has sold for $1000.00 as gem, but rarer than 1831 and rare in any Cond.

1863-S 5Dol. Fine
1870-S " VF-EF rev better
1859-S Silver Dol G*VG (only S mint of Type
1870-CC " " " VG plus only 17,000 "CC" Dol

1879 Dime F*VF rev weak as usual 15,000 mint
1881-S 20.00 Gold BU ~~second~~ condition

scarce 7

Possible Trades:

* 70-S got $130.00 Walton and $125 Watson in much inferior cond. than mine while 1870*S Ten got only $85.00 in Watson Sale.	* 1. 1870-S Five for 1867-S Ten 2. 1885-S Dime & 1863-S Five for 67-S 3. 1836 Half Cent & 1870-CC Dol. for either 1875-P 2½ or 79-CC Ten 4. 1836 ½ Cent for 1871-P Ten & 67-S
--	---

Is the 1875-P 2½ from the Metropolitan Sale '59
And are you sure mint mark not removed from 75-S

The 1879-CC is V. RARE and I would love to have it but coins in less than Fine almost never sell in the gold field. I also really would like the 1867-S Ten even though I passed up a chance to buy a VF 3 years ago for $100.00. I suppose you bought most of the Watson Eagles as they went terribly cheap. I only wish I was there.

If you want to trade let me know by Friday when I can go to safe box. Please state dates and condition of my coins as I did not carbon this letter. Let me know && which of the 4 trades listed you could consent and if you want to work in other coins in my list make a proposition.

Truly,

Dale Phelan

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

Thank you very much for your letter of December 26, and the coin was received.

The coin itself leaves much to be desired, but I am keeping it as you have honestly described it and surely appreciate the manner in which you handled this transaction.

I collect Carson City gold, and am practically interested in all types of gold coins; as much as my pocketbook can afford. You might keep me advised as to what you have available.

Sincerely yours,

The "Crystal Ball" has been published in our January issue for the past fifteen years and is a looked-forward-to feature by readers . . . so I want to repeat it again for the January 1968 issue.

If you feel so inclined I would appreciate receiving your analysis of the 1968 market outlook (by Dec. 7th, please). At this writing most dealers are reporting an upturn in sales but market remains selective. Your opinion on demand and price prospects on specific series will be of reader interest. Also of interest is opinion on prospects of 1968-S mint proofs if S production coinage is not executed.
